Taran,

Well that was a surprise! I've sent the updated information to our web designer and asked her to make the correction.

I've also put it on my checklist for next year.

Thanks for letting me know.

Hi Lorena,

The PBID site links to last year's musical line up.

Please update as soon as possible.

We need to advertise that the Mariachi Divas are headlining and that we have such a great group of other performers.

Thank you!

Taran
